CLASS PROPHECY
OF
1969

Dear Class of '69:

After extensive study of the moons and stars of Leo, I, the great swammy know-nothing, seer of all, knower of all, teller of truth and lying once in a while, foresee for the class of '69 wealth and prosperity in the year of 1990. In the following occupations therefore I see - -

Jim Marcus is head mechanic working in a garage, still trying to get his old "Nellie" to run.

Doug Larson is head janitor in Sedan Public School. Most of Doug's time is spent sweeping the Halls and checking bells to see if they go "ding-a-ling."

Julie Kemnitz is now a beauty operator in Francois Barber Shop. She is able to carry on engrossing conversations because of her vast knowledge of French.

Kim Latterell is presently the minister in the newly constructed Riverview Church, recently carpeted with "wall-ter" wall carpet.

Chuck Ridl has converted "Charley's Hatchery" into a Colonel Saunders Southern Fried Chicken establishment. It is commonly called "Charley's Chicken House."

Becky Haen is now leading Hubert Humphrey's come back into office after his having lost the last five elections.

Jane DeGree has incorporated her own restaurant chain featuring the "weepy burger" with hopes of competing with Burger King, "Home of the Whopper." Her first establishment is located near the Sacred Heart Dump.

Doug Bakker and Doug Reek, after the vast experience of working for Harlan Johnson on earth, have now been promoted to the new agricultural center on the moon.

Herb Grabow is now writing for "Mad Magazine" specializing in his new robot series, "Kitty Num-Num." He does most of his writing from his New Ulm Pizza Joint.

Mark Kottom has just received an Oscar for best producer of "Roadrunner Cartoons." He is also a side line agent for Glorious Gloria, alias Gloria Mehrhoff, who is now a well known dancer in Sacred Heart.

Bruce Varpness is now Mark Kottom's personal body guard. He is especially known as Mark's "guardian angel" who keeps watch over Mark's billions and his various assets.

Marcia Deuth is now working as an elementary teacher in the city of Echo. She spends her summer months at Stoney Smith Resort and spends her evenings watching the "firey" moon go down.

Diane Gens is employed as head pump jockey in Olivia, Minneasota. After speaking with her boss it is learned that she has made great strides in learning how to appropriate that "extra quart" of oil a month.

Gary Bratsch, Greg Merkel, and Dave Schemel have now formed their own pop group, "Merk's Trio." Because of their outstanding ability in the RHS band, they appear regularly at the Palms Ballroom. They have recently received a gold record for their hit, "The Green Boogie Man," Which sold over a million copies.

Marcia Bruns is employed as head booking agent for "Merk's Trio," with her headquarters in Granite Falls. She is considered the "Prime Authority" in this work because of her love for teenage bands.

Lee Knapper has just recently converted his orange pick-up truck into a bulk gas truck. He records most of his miles traveling to and from Sacred Heart checking up on competition.

Cindy Scott has just turned down a position as secretary out west, and is presently employed as secretary for the company that has made Milwaukee famous.

Merlin King is manager of the "Cool-Aid" Company with headquarters in Belview, Minnesota. He is working on a new formula to make "Super Cool" Cool Aid.

Deanne Treichler is now the perenial queen of Soybean Days in Clara City. People recognized her love for the town in her high school days and have elected her twenty years straight.

Jim Mulder is head plasterer at the Midway Motor Court in Minneapolis. His busiest time of the year is when the high school students come down for state tournaments.

Steve Tatge has just been promoted the head Campbell Tomato Soup Tester. Mike Johnson is head supervisor in the company because of the experience he had telling Steve what to do in high school.

Rita Nester is teaching Phy-Ed. in a prominent high school and is getting most of her exercise searching for the contact she lost on graduation night.

Bill Ryks is now co-owner of Joe's in Priam, being that he has half of the boughten merchandise at home anyway.

Gayden and Jerry Wohlman have gone into the apple business setting up the Riverview Orchard featuring "Wohlman's Wormless Apples."

Gail Wohlman is employed at K&M Manufacturing on the clock assembly line where she checks for faulty tickers.

Carol Tschudy has now been hired as first female high school principal of RHS after the retirement of her high school principal. She took this job mainly because of her love for the school.

John Loskota and Leland Hertling have now opened their own motel chain. It was secretly devulged that John is in charge of room service which is especially noted for waking people up in the morning.

Carol Aalderks is now head business education teacher in RHS, after the retirement of Miss Anne Olson. It was devulged by the FBI that she is editor of an underground paper originating in Danube.

Paulette Jacobs is head economist at the Betty Crocker Company. She has recently received a patent to develop her own canned men.

With no intent of malace and without liability to anyone, I close this open letter to the Class of '69 with the hope that your class lives up to the glories of your senior year. I am sincerely your friendly star gazer,

Swammy Know-Nothing

ECHOES OF '69

As the "Sounds of '69" fade away, and only the echoing memories remain, the spirit of RHS will continue to thrive.

The Annual Staff of 1969 wishes to thank everyone who helped in completing this book, especially Miss McDonough, our advisor, for all the hours and help she gave us.

Many thanks to Mr. Will Wetmore of Williams Studio of Redwood Falls, Mr. Tom Licklider, our student photographers, and also to the Renville Businessmen who bought advertising included in our annual.

"Last Words of Departure From the Seniors"

Underclassmen, look forward to another year, complete with sounds of participation, sounds of competition. Until then, the halls, once alive with excitement, anticipation, tenseness and fear....hold only echoes, as the last "Sounds of '69" fade away. The Class of '69 can only reminisce. They go their separate ways, now into a world that awaits them, a world of new sounds to discover and explore.
